

National Conference of Editorial Writers

*1725 N Street, Northwest
Washington, D.C. 20036*

Telephone (202) 785-1081

Dec. 20, 1977

PRESIDENT

John J. Zakarian
*St. Louis Post-Dispatch
St. Louis, Mo. 63101*

VICE PRESIDENT

Clarke M. Thomas
*Pittsburgh Post-Gazette
Pittsburgh, Pa. 15222*

TREASURER

Robert T. Pittman
*St. Petersburg Times
St. Petersburg, Fla. 33731*

SECRETARY

Robert T. Barnard
*The Courier-Journal
Louisville, Ky. 40202*

DIRECTORS

Reese Cleghorn
*The Charlotte Observer
Charlotte, N. C. 28201*

Gilbert Cranberg
*Des Moines Register & Tribune
Des Moines, Iowa 50304*

John G. McCullough
*The Evening & Sunday Bulletin
Philadelphia, Pa. 19101*

Ann L. Merriman
*The Richmond News Leader
Richmond, Va. 23213*

William E. Rone, Jr.
*The State
Columbia, S. C. 29202*

Desmond Stone
*Democrat & Chronicle
Rochester, N. Y. 14614*

Dear Mr. Falkiewicz:

When we met on Nov. 19, you and your colleague told us two weeks would be a sufficient period for the CIA to examine and to respond to a memorandum summarizing the information exchanged at the session. The memorandum which the NCEW group drafted was mailed to you on Nov. 24 and we are still waiting for a response.

I tried to contact you by telephone on Dec. 8 without success. Your secretary called back, however, and reported that she had conveyed my message to you and that you instructed her to inform me a response would be made soon.

I would appreciate hearing from you soon so that we may proceed informing our members about the Nov. 19 meeting.

Best wishes for the holidays.

Sincerely,

John J. Zakarian
President

Mr. Andrew T. Falkiewicz
Assistant to the Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington D.C. 20505

sent copy to SB- 22 Dec 76